MEDAL FOR BOY WHO HELPED FIND CHUM'S SLAYERS

Architect and Chauffeur Held by Coroner for Causing Death of "Buster" Fay.

THEY "DIDN'T KNOW,"

Heard Crash but Weren't Aware of Accident, Says Eisendrath's Lawyer.

Willie Simon B. Elsendrath, amurchitest of No. 500 Fifth avenue, and Frederick Heyl, a chauffeur, were being arraigned before Coroner Hellenstein to-day, following their acrest for the death of Patrick Pay, tre years old. who was tilled Friday by an automobile on West End avenue, bear Fifty-ninth treet, the National Highways Protective Society was voting a gold medal to "Tommy" Lorenz, one of the Pay boy's chums, who had given information that led to the arrests.

It was young Lorenz who gave the detectives of the West Sixty-eightic street station their first ciue of the number of the car. At some later date the medal will be presented with cere-

Islandrath seemed nervous when he was brought before Coroner Hellenstein. The chauffeur sat stolldly in the office wells arrangements were being made for ball. The Coroner announced that he would reduce Eisendrath's bafi of $5,000, which he accepted last night, to $3.000. The charge against the archiect is that he was an accessory to hemielde.

In the case of Heyl, who is charged with hombride, bail was fixed at $5.000. The chauffour had a bondsman present, but he was not able to qualify in the full amount, so Heyl's wife, who went to the Coroner's office with her little daughter, went to get a friend who, she said, would furnish the additional

LAWYER SAYS ARCHITECT DID NOT KNOW CAR HIT BOY.

Ball for Elsendrath was given by his sieters, Mrs. Bertha Bloch and Mrs. Ida Lyons of No. 226 Eighth street, Brooklyn. The architect had nothing to say for himself, but Lawyer Alfred Frankenthal of No. 25 Nassau street, who appeared for him, declared:

"Elsendrath absolutely did not know that a boy had been hit by his auto-mobile. He had left his office and was on his way home. He was to meet Dr. R. Blum, a dentist, who employed Heyl, at a garage in Wort Sixty-seventh street. Dr. Blum's car was out of commission and it was in this way that Heyl came to be driving the Elsen-

Turning into West End avenue. Eisendrath says he heard something of smash but did not know what it was. It was only when they reached the garage that they found the glass of one of the lamps broken. He has not tried to run away. He has been at his office every day since and did not happen to read of the fatality in the news-
